REGISTRATION GUIDELINES

Who can access the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session?

There will be an authentication process upon pre-registration for the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session. Only authenticated CMT Unitholders will be granted access to attend the session.

CMT Unitholders are required to submit an electronic copy of their latest proof of their unitholdings in CMT ("CMT Unitholdings") for verification purposes when they RSVP, failing which, they will not be provided with the login details for the live webcast.

CMT Unitholders who hold CMT Units through nominee accounts are required to submit an electronic copy of their proof of CMT Unitholdings when they RSVP (for example, a letter from the nominee bank), failing which, they will not be permitted to join the live webcast.

A CMT Unitholder who is a corporation may appoint one representative by submitting an authorisation letter (on the corporation's letterhead) authorising its named representative to attend the live webcast on its behalf and indicate the details as required during the RSVP process.

By providing your contact details to us, you agree that your personal data may be collected, used and disclosed by SIAS, the trustee of CMT and the CMT Manager (or their service providers, agents or authorised representatives) (collectively, the "Relevant Persons") for the purposes of administering and facilitating the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session (including providing any communications in relation to the session and preparing and compiling attendance lists and any other documents relating to the SIAS-CMT dialogue session) and other purposes in connection with the implementation and administration of the Merger as well as for investor relations communications, and in order for the Relevant Persons to comply with any applicable laws, listing rules, regulations and/or guidelines.

Can I register a representative to access the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session?

No, only authenticated CMT Unitholders will be granted access to the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session. CMT Unitholders are not allowed to appoint a proxy to join the session.

How do I know if I have successfully registered?

You will receive a confirmation email with the login details sent by SIAS at least 24 hours before the session. Registrants will be notified through email and/or call as a result of an invalidation of his/her submitted proof of unitholdings in CMT.

I did not receive any confirmation email with instructions to access the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session. What should I do?

CMT Unitholders are first advised to check the “junk” or “spam” folders of their email in case the relevant emails are directed there instead of their “inbox”.

CMT Unitholders who have registered by the registration deadline but do not receive an email response by 17 September 2020, 7:00 p.m. may email SIAS for assistance at admin@sias.org.sg.

Authenticated CMT Unitholders will receive a confirmation email with the login details at least 24 hours before the session. Each set of login details will only allow one person to login during the live webcast. Multiple logins using the same set of login details will not be allowed.

Can I share my login credentials with others? What are the consequences

CMT Unitholders must not share the login credentials provided to them with others, as only one device is allowed per login. It is each CMT Unitholder's responsibility to keep the login credentials provided to himself/herself.

The joint organisers reserve the right to restrict access to the session for any CMT Unitholder who did not use the same registered details and/or any other unregistered CMT Unitholder.

NOTES

For best viewing experience, CMT Unitholders are encouraged to join the SIAS-CMT Virtual Dialogue Session using their desktops/laptops with Wi-Fi or cellular data connection.
